Join Rabbi Adina Lewittes in Germany and Poland to explore the darkness of our Jewish past and the sparks of light that are illuminating its fascinating rebirth. Visits to historic Jewish districts, to the Topography of Terror, and to Auschwitz-Birkenau will be complemented by visits to growing Jewish schools, community centers and synagogues of all kinds. Meet local Jewish leaders, writers, artists and musicians who are documenting the past as well as those who are writing the future. Through daily teachings and reflections, consider the process of renewal in the life of our people, as well as in our own personal experiences and journeys.
